

A food lover's GUIDE TO CANADA

YUKON

Yukon's food is diverse. Regional specialties include: moose, dall sheep, mountain goat, caribou, porcupine, Arctic grayling, trout, Kokanee salmon, Alaskan king crab and halibut.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

produces 95 per cent of Canada's cultivated blueberries

MANITOBA

produces close to 57 per cent of Canada's dry bean crop, like navy, pinto, black, red Mexican and red kidney beans

NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

The Northwest Territories has its own food guide, featuring foods in each food group that are easily found in the north, like caribou, duck, organ meats, bannock and wild greens.

ALBERTA

is responsible for 60 per cent of Canada's beef production produces 85 per cent of Canada's domestic wines. Cheers!

ONTARIO

NUNAVUT

Nunavut's pink coldwater shrimp is one of the most in-demand species of shrimp in the world. About 140,000 metric tonnes of northern shrimp are caught each year in Nunavut.

SASKATCHEWAN

affectionately referred to as Canada's breadbasket, produces over 54 per cent of Canada's wheat, and over 28 per cent of Canada's grains is responsible for 90 per cent of Canada's maple syrup production

QUEBEC